

Lynn Hagerman has been with the VFW National Home since 2012. Coming from the corporate finance world, this is her first time with a non-for-profit organization, and it has been one of the most rewarding. Before working at the VFW National Home, Lynn has been in the Finance field for the past 42 years working in all aspects of the business primarily in Washington State. She has worked her way up from finance clerk to Finance Manager reporting to the Finance Director, and finally being promoted to Finance Director at the National Home.

Lynn is married to her husband of 45 years who is a Navy Veteran. She has several Veterans in her family including her father, uncles & brother in-laws serving in Army and the Navy.

She enjoys traveling with her husband to new places within the United States, kayaking and spending time with family and friends.
